- 1 Previous winners not eligible.
- 2 Event is open to any instrumentalist who is a citizen or permanent resident of Australia or New Zealand. Residency and proof of age documents will be cited by Sydney Eisteddfod staff upon progression to the Semi-Final. This can include a Birth Certificate, an Australian or New Zealand passport, or a permanent resident stamp. A driver's licence is not acceptable.
- 3 Adjudicator reports will be written for the heats only. No marks will be given on these reports.
- 4 Accompaniment
  - > Performances are for solo instrument with acoustic piano accompaniment unless the work chosen was composed specifically for solo instrument without accompaniment. Works written specifically for solo instrument with a different acoustic instrumental accompaniment are also allowed. If you are unsure if your repertoire fits this criteria, please email info@sydneyeisteddfod.com.au
  - > No Official Accompanists are provided.
- 5 Up to five Finalists and two Reserve Finalists will be selected from the Semi-Final for the Senior Scholarship.
- 6 The awarding of the scholarship is at the discretion of the adjudicators and is given on the understanding that the Winner will undertake study in music performance, including tertiary studies, masterclasses, private lessons, solo and chamber music recitals - both domestically and/or internationally.
- 7 In awarding the scholarship, the adjudicators will take into consideration presentation, current level of achievement, commitment to professional development and artistic potential.
- 8 The scholarship must be utilised within 2 years of winning and completed within 2 years thereafter. The payment of instalments is upon application to Sydney Eisteddfod with satisfactory reports of progress from the winner's teacher or teaching institution.
- 9 The Winner and Finalists must be reasonably available for media interviews and performance engagements. Sydney Eisteddfod will endeavour to continue to provide performance opportunities to alumni as a way of staying connected and nurturing the creative practices of all.
