

Sydney Eisteddfod Health and Safety Policy

Current as at 16 March 2020

1. Entry fees are not refundable except in the following, limited circumstances:

- a) an event is cancelled at the sole discretion of the Eisteddfod;
 - b) an entrant is no longer able to participate in an event due to the contraction of the notifiable condition known as COVID-19 (novel coronavirus) and at the time of contraction of COVID-19, the entrant was required to isolate themselves for a period of time and/or until receipt of medical clearance from a registered medical professional;
 - c) an entrant was required, ordered and/or compelled by a registered medical professional and/or government authority to isolate and/or self-isolate and/or be placed in quarantine for a period of time due to their exposure to COVID-19 and/or an individual diagnosed with COVID-19;
 - d) an entrant has, for a period of 14 days prior to an event, travelled to a country considered by the NSW Department of Health as a country at higher risk of COVID-19 (excluding airport transit). Determination of a country at higher risk of COVID-19 is subject to change based on updates provided by the NSW Department of Health;
 - e) the Eisteddfod excludes an entrant from participation in an event in circumstances where the Eisteddfod becomes aware of, or has valid reasons to suspect that, an entrant may have contracted and/or otherwise been exposed to COVID-19, unless the entrant has medical clearance that suggests otherwise.
2. Entrants seeking a refund of the entry fee due to either clauses 1 (b) or (c) above, are required to provide the Eisteddfod with a copy of all medical certification evidencing the period of isolation and/or quarantine and/or confirming a diagnosis of COVID-19. The date of isolation and/or quarantine must fall within the date of an event in order for a refund of the entry fee.
 3. Entrants seeking a refund of the entry fee due to clause 1 (d) above are required to produce evidence of their travel to and from the higher risk country including a copy of airline tickets, passport, and/or travel itinerary.
