

Sydney Eisteddfod Video Submission Guidelines – Dance.

1. Video should be one continuous take with no pauses, stoppages or cuts.
 - a. If you are submitting two routines for a championship, please submit these as two separate youtube videos and clearly state which is performance A and B in the body of the email.
2. No editing/effects or other manipulation of the video is permitted. Sydney Eisteddfod reserves the right to disqualify an entrant if such edits are apparent.
3. Only one camera should be used for filming (ie no multiple shots from different camera views).
4. Videos are best recorded in landscape for optimal viewing.
5. Please note that entries will not be judged on the quality of video. Entrants are encouraged to provide the best quality video they can, with the equipment available to them. Professionally recorded videos are not required.
 - a. Smart phone cameras are perfectly acceptable.
6. Videos are only to be submitted ONCE. No changes can be made once video has already been submitted, so check over all details carefully.
7. Any form of cheating, as deemed by the Eisteddfod, will result in disqualification.
8. Performance must be performed and recorded by the entrant/s in the previous 12 months.
 - a. Videos from past performances are perfectly acceptable as long as they are from the past 12 months.
9. Please be sure to include the following information in the title of the youtube video.
 - a. Event number – Entrant Number - Name
 - b. Name of performance (for Demi Character only)
10. Video will be viewed only by adjudicator/s and Eisteddfod staff.
11. All individual category rules and conditions still apply, so make yourself familiar with these.

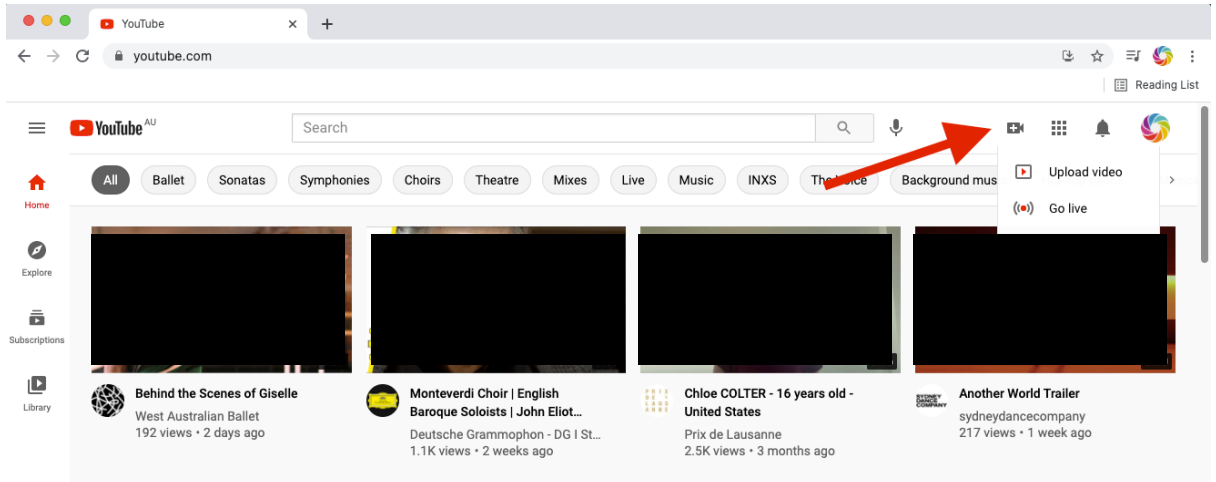

Uploading your completed video to YouTube.

We will be accepting your videos via YouTube link. It is very important to ensure when uploading your video to YouTube to select 'unlisted' in the privacy settings. This means that no one can access your video unless they are provided with the direct link. An unlisted video will not appear on YouTube search results, your channel, or the home page.

How to Upload to YouTube from a Web Browser

1. Navigate to www.youtube.com
2. If you don't already have an account, you will first have to set up an account.
3. Once logged in, find the upload video button on the top right-hand corner, this should look like a camera with a plus button on top. Click this and then click 'upload'

4. You can now either drag and drop your video file on to the 'arrow' or use the 'select files' button to search your folders for the correct file.

5. Once you have chosen your file, it will ask you to fill out the details for the video. Please follow the following format for the title of the video:
 - a. Event Number – Entrant Number – Entrant Name.
 - b. Once details have been appropriately filled out, click NEXT.
